CxSQUiZ is a viral hotlist game. It was built from start to finish, with a unique and very interesting gameplay. Use mouse and keyboard controls to place the various objects on your gaming board and match them into a full screen mosaic picture. Objects are randomly placed and when you are close to completion the program randomly changes the picture or moves the objects. As you move the object to the right you score for points. Each object also has a timer and when it reaches zero you lose. You can also add an invisible border, with the option to zoom in or zoom out your screen, or go fullscreen mode. Game Play: Guess the picture, just by chance. With each try the mosaic changes and some things are highlighted. You can also play with the zoom effect, zoom the camera so as to have a better view of the game and gameboard. When the timer goes on zero you lose. You can also pause the game, return to the options and so on. Welcome to the latest version of CxSQUiZ - the hottest game on the block! This is version 1.06 of CxSQUiZ and it has new and more interesting features. Make sure to download the game now and see if it's for you! Requirements: Windows 98/ME/2000/XP/NT/2003/Vista/Windows 7 256 MB of RAM 100 MB of hard disk space Internet Explorer 5.5 or higher DirectX 8 or higher with supported video card USB webcam This download is marked as adware because it displays advertisement banners or other type of commercials while running.
