published:26 Sep 2017 views:1400 The students of University of Puducherry (UOP) had a better time than what it normally has when they held a VR game under the theme 'Are you ready for the challenges?' during Quizmania 2017. The quiz is a massive competition held by UOP every year. This video is about a quiz which was specially played in the classrooms. A VR headset was used and played by the students, which made the students feel some of what a regular player feels when he or she plays 'The Oasis Game'. The way the VR scene was set up, it was felt as if one was actually watching a movie from a cinema screen. The quiz was a success which attracted a huge crowd and also saw the entrance of a movie hall, which was not there at all at the time. The audience was requested to pick up one of the three challenges lying on the floor, which were exhibited only to the audience. The first batch of the audience also visited the movie hall and enjoyed the movie which was also exhibited in the same hall. The participation level among the audience was also very much encouraging, as there were many people who did not have the chance to participate in the quiz competition. What's new:

Beware Publisher Double Fine is releasing "Citywars Savage" via MacOS/Windows/Steam UPDATEThis is a Mac/Windows version not a Linux one as I was initially told. Citywars Savage is a 2D tactical turn based game with a complex user interface. Control up to three units at once, in each turn you choose an attack and a defence. Swat your enemy's attack by blocking (empty square), intercept (transparent square), or weaken (diamonds). The tension can escalate, when characters are stuck on one another, or into a city wall. Outright victory means owning everything. Features: Up to three units Tactical turn based combat Characters and units are controlled via the interface. Attack with characters (boomerangs) or by swiping through units and characters. Charge into battle and destroy enemies. Havens (walled cities), woods (forests), hills (hills) and mountains (mountains) are also available. Characters and units are each bestowed stats (Hit Points HP, moves PD, retreat RT), which appear in the corner when you hover over them. Powers let units fight off monsters, for your team, or even the computer if you're sending in an army. Effect Attacks can be chained, ensembled attacks Only usable when a unit are attacking A number of units are stored in you

Tough Tank, All Citys can make use of them. Send units to battle, using a Roster to send them out to battle. Don't miss out and "Like" away Please, do not rate me on Steam. Steam is a rating system used by the Steam community, similar to one man review websites, but with more control over the ratings. Steam must be used to spread the word and I recommend it but only if it doesn't compromise your game. Ratings can be malicious and misleading. Steam Specific Comments Content related comments and ratings under Steam Hi, my name is David Cole and I am the sole developer of this game. I work full time on this game for free and it is even free now if you do not want your games rating score to be visible to other players. If you have any enquiries I will be more than happy to help in any way that I can. I have been working on this for the last eleven months and
