I know about compression etc, but it is useless without an uncut dvd quality subtitle file, unless you intend to use the dvd to go back to it later. Is there a decent file converter which will allow me to split and edit subtitles? A: Use cssubcutty. Html -> Subtitles -> Sub-title -> Save As This will split the subtitles into their own files. If that's not suitable for your needs, I'm sure someone else can come along with an alternative solution.
